

DONNA CRAMER-SHARER

Colonie Youth Center

Donna Cramer-Sharer, a life-long resident of Colonie, was raised in the village and now owns a home in the town with her husband Mark. They share their home with their 18 year-old daughter Lindsey, Moose, a yellow Labrador Retriever and Nacho, an Eyelash Crested Gecko.

Donna has been employed by the Colonie Youth Center for over 11 years, currently serving as the Community Relations Manager. Her duties include all facets of marketing and development, the administration of two scholarship programs and various special projects.

Donna volunteers her time as a Trustee for the William K. Sanford Town Library and serves as the Board Liaison to the Friends of the Library. Donna was an active member of the Parent Teacher Association holding various executive board positions and worked to ensure the first charter of a special education PTA (SEPTA) in the South Colonie School District.

In addition to spending time with her family, Donna enjoys reading, antiquing and visiting coastal Maine.
