

PATRICIA COOPER

Capital District Transportation Authority

Patricia Cooper, CPA is the Comptroller at the Capital District Transportation Authority. She oversees a large staff who are charged with processing and accounting of all revenues and expenses for CDTA with an annual operating budget of nearly $90 million. Having previously worked in public accounting and as an in-house controller in the private sector, her diverse accounting experience brings a business acumen that is helping CDTA move forward on exciting new initiatives.

Patricia is a proud graduate of Cornell University and a Certified Public Accountant.