

SAMUEL TRIMBOLI

The Golub Corporation / Price Chopper Supermarkets

Sam's career began at 15 years old when he landed his first job as a cashier at Price Chopper Supermarkets. At a young age, he realized that interacting with people in a retail environment was something that he enjoyed and came naturally to him. During college, he held managerial roles in store operations before eventually joining Price Chopper's corporate marketing team to lead the company's consumer and market research efforts.

Sam's experience in different consumer-facing roles has given him a unique perspective that enables him to be an advocate for not just customers, but also employees on the front lines. This perspective along with his quantitative research and analytic experience continues to serve him well in his current role, where he focuses on the marketing of Price Chopper's ecommerce programs.

Sam is currently based out of The Golub Corporation's Schenectady, New York headquarters. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from The College of Saint Rose in Albany, New York and an MBA from Clarkson University in Schenectady, New York.
