

SASHA HERZIG

Key Private Bank

As a Fiduciary Strategist for Key Private Bank, Sasha Herzig works as an advisor in a fiduciary capacity to develop and execute estate plans based on each client's objectives. She helps successful individuals and families identify and resolve tax-related issues for their trust and estate plans, offering regular updates on potential economic and legislative impacts to their portfolios. Sasha works closely with her colleagues on the Key Private Bank team to ensure the estate, trust and philanthropic solutions she recommends are in harmony with each client's goals.

Prior to joining Key, Sasha served as an Attorney for a Trusts & Estates Law Firm in New York City, where she worked closely with individuals and families on their estate planning needs, including wealth protection, long-term care and business succession planning.

Sasha earned a Juris Doctor Degree from the City University of New York School of Law and a Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Women's Studies from the University at Albany, SUNY. She is admitted to the New York State Bar. Sasha is a Member of the New York State Bar Association, Trusts and Estates Law Section. She is also on the Advisory Council for the American Heart Association and is a certified MediateArt volunteer with Volunteer Lawyers for the Arts.
