

TYLER KUZNIA

Rose & Kiernan

As a lifelong Saratoga Springs, NY native, Tyler's passion is to give back and support the development and growth of local businesses in the New York Capital Region. As a trusted advisor and ambassador of the Rose & Kiernan brand, he is committed to arming mid-large size companies with the proper tools to protect their balance sheets and confidently pursue their mission objectives as they grow.

Tyler's experience constitutes involvement within the building materials industry and local community service organizations. He has previously held key sales, store management, and national account management roles with companies such as Sherwin-Williams Paints of Cleveland, OH and OMG, Inc./FastenMaster of Agawam, MA, and in his most recent role jointly managed a multimillion dollar retail program in The Home Depot nationwide.

Tyler is now excited to tackle his newest challenge- to ethically provide the highest-quality insurance, employee benefits, surety, and risk management products and services to deliver tangible results and drive bottom-line growth for companies within these key target industries, among others.
