

VINCE SPEENBURGH

Capital District Physicians' Health Plan (CDPHP)

Vince Speenburgh is a Capital Region native growing up in Niskayuna, NY. Staying local, he earned a B.S. in Biology and B.A. in Psychology from the University at Albany. Vince completed his Masters in Public Health with a concentration in health policy, management and behavior, at the University at Albany School of Public Health. He has over 15 years of experience in the healthcare industry, clinical and professional.

Vince is the Manager of Practice Transformation at Capital District Physicians' Health Plan (CDPHP), partnering with primary care practices to improve practice efficiency, patient experience and patient outcomes. Vince is responsible for developing and implementing practice-specific strategies to achieve patient-centered medical home care delivery requirements and recognition. He serves as the knowledge expert in medical home recognition requirements, and educates and trains practice staff how to integrate best practice tools. Vince is a Patient-Centered Medical Home Certified Content Expert (PCMH CCE).

Vince lives in Burnt Hills, NY with his wife and two children. He enjoys spending time with his family and being the best role model for his kids. Vince stays active playing golf, basketball, slow-pitch softball, running road races, and triathlons.